ABOUT THE ARTIST

André Musgrove is an Underwater Photographer, Filmmaker, Freediver, Underwater Stunt Performer, and Private Dive Guide born and based in The Bahamas. He has worked with international brands including National Geographic, BBC, GoPro, Canon, and Rolex. Musgrove is as talented in front of the camera as he is behind, having been featured on a variety of Discovery Channel's Shark Week specials and TV programs. He is also an ambassador for both the non-profit group SeaLegacy and the Bahamas National Trust.

With over 4,000 logged scuba dives and more than 15+ years of free-diving, spearfishing, and shark diving experience, Musgrove has a distinctive edge for capturing a variety of creative underwater scenarios. He specializes in filming and photographing humans and marine wildlife while free-diving, which allows for more intimate yet less invasive interactions with large mega-fauna.

A DEEPER LOOK INTO PARADISE

André Musgrove's solo debut, Bahamas Below: A Deeper Look into Paradise, invites viewers to dive deep into the enchanting world beneath the waters of The Bahamas. This captivating exhibition offers Musgrove's unique perspective on the beauty, fragility, and transformative power of the ocean, while highlighting the importance of conservation and our profound connection to the marine environment.

Musgrove challenges viewers to rethink their relationship with the sea by showcasing not only the delicate and almost ethereal marine life but also human beings in full immersion. His creative portraits capture individuals in harmonious communion with the underwater world, inviting us to witness the physical and mental transformation that unfolds in the sea's embrace.

Through this dual exploration of both the beauty of marine life and the human spirit's connection to it, Musgrove offers a new perspective on how the ocean can shape and change us. Alongside Musgrove's striking underwater photography, his films & videos provide an immersive experience that highlights life in motion. Viewers can simultaneously engage intimately with his artistic process and the challenging conditions under which Musgrove's work is created.

Bahamas Below: A Deeper Look into Paradise is a timely exhibition, as the future of our oceans is at the forefront of global conversations. Musgrove's exhibition is both a celebration of the natural world and a call to action, urging viewers to engage in a meaningful dialogue about the ongoing crisis affecting our seas. The ripple effects of this exhibition will extend far beyond the gallery, sparking deeper awareness and fostering a lasting commitment to preserving the sacredness of the marine environment for future generations.
